

CURRENT POLITICAL TOPICS.
John B. Robinson Chosen President of the Pennsylvania Republican Club.

The Pennsylvania League of republicans clubs was in session all day yesterday at Scranton. The committee on resolutions laid the work of the convention for several hours.

The contest for the presidency was an interesting one. Wm. C. Moreland of Allegheny named John Dallzell. One of his remarks was that the people have grown tired of the declaration that the party is greater than the man. "Men are resolving," said he, "on bold and independent republicanism. If victory comes in Pennsylvania this year the issue will be largely decided by this convention. If from selfish ambition we shall permit our whole course to be decided and colored by a few, the party will eventually arise in its might and crush out the futile efforts of these few. If selfish aims give way to party interests, then there is no room for the party of Pennsylvania.

Men should be named who are sound for the party, and not the puppets of any men. In naming Mr. Dallzell it was my honor to nominate him who was easily among the best of the candidates."

Col. Stratton of Clarion seconded the nomination of Mr. Dallzell, and a colored delegate named Foster of Allegheny also seconded the nomination.

W. H. Foster of Delaware nominated Hon. John B. Robinson of Medina. The presence of so many earnest republicans in the convention, he said, proved that the party again presented a united front. He predicted that with such a front Gregg and Morrison would not only win, but would do so in a decided majority.

The republicans would win in 1892. In nominating Jack Robinson he named a man who was not only a republican in victory, but a republican in defeat. Mr. Dallzell of Dauphin seconded the nomination of Mr. Robinson.

Gen. J. P. S. Gobin of Lebanon nominated Maj. Everett Warren of Scranton. He made a pie for harmonious action and said that Maj. Warren was the only man who could bring unity to the party.

Gen. Beede's committee on platform then reported. With the platform came a resolution recommending that all regular clubs be admitted whenever their charters were presented before July 15.

This would bring in about forty additional clubs not for Dallzell.

Mr. Dallzell of Dauphin immediately moved to lay the resolution on the table. On this motion Mr. Magee demanded a roll call, saying that the resolution was a vote of no confidence motion. The platform was adopted, but the resolution admitting additional clubs was lost by a vote of 125 to 70. The Warren men voted with the Dallzell men.

ROBINSON ELECTED.

Mr. Robinson was elected on the first ballot. The vote was: Robinson, 141; Dallzell, 42; Warren, 15. Williamsport was selected as the next place of meeting.

Mr. Dallzell moved to make the election unanimous, and this was seconded by Mr. Chris Magee and Maj. Warren. Mr. Dallzell was at once called to the platform and made a long speech. He said that he accepted the issues of the campaign and that he would support the candidates for governor, J. M. Fassett, and the candidate cannot escape the responsibility of his act.

The names of Flosser and Sheehan were prominently displayed when mentioned by the governor. At the conclusion of his speech Gen. Hill left for Albany.

Preparation for the Republican Campaign in Maryland.

Gathered in all sections of Maryland to discuss plans and methods of conducting the state campaign.

Senator Robinson was then elected to the chair, and in his speech of thanks finally referred to the days when he and Mr. Dallzell attended the same college. He would be proud to follow the wise counsels of Senator Dallzell in the incoming Congress when they sat together in the national convention.

E. N. Bishop of Allegheny was elected secretary. James P. Burke of the same county residing in his favor. Mahlon H. Young of Philadelphia was elected treasurer. William Linn of Philadelphia was appointed corresponding secretary. William Carter and Frank Jones of Philadelphia were chosen vice presidents. William H. McGleary of Allegheny and Capt. John Taylor of Philadelphia were elected delegates at large to the national convention. The names of Frank and George of Allegheny and Howard Hawley of Westmoreland.

A resolution was adopted that hereafter clubs must be in existence six months before they can apply for admission to the league.

THE PLATFORM.

Following is the platform adopted:
